DUEEN'S UNIVERSITY ARCHIVES

LOCATOR 2324

BOX 7,3/53

FILE 9

HISTORIC BELLEVILLE

members of the Hastings County Historical Society)

THE KETCHESON FAMILY

In 1783, when the Americans were granted their independence by Great Britain, many people left the new republic. Some left because they were determined to live under the British flag; others because they had fought with the British army, and still others beish army, and still others be-cause they were regarded as British sympathizers by the Revolutionaries and accordingly mistreated.

Many of these people, known to us as the United Empire Loyalists, crossed the seas to Britain or the British West Indies, while others stayed on this continent, going to Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, and

Canada. Among the U. E. Loyalists who sailed from New York City to Nova Scotia, were William

Ketcheson, his wife Mary, and their infant son.

A native of Yorkshire, England, William Ketcheson had served in the British Army durant ing the Revolutionary War, and afterward settled near Port afterward settled near Mouton, Nova Scotia.

In 1784 fire swept through that settlement, and Ketcheson soon moved westward to the Hay Bay section of Fredericks-burgh Township.

By the year 1800 the Ket-cheson family had seven growing sons of sturdy pioneer stock and training, which indicated the desirability of obtaining extensive land holdings. Accordingly land grants of 600 acres were obtained in the fifth concession of Sidney Township. cession of Sidney Township, where the family and ued to arowday, descendants liam Kicheson are to in almost every Canad vince and in many ian pro-American years.

(Article 62 contributed by family have been preparing a genealogical histo Ketcheson family. history of

Their labors reached a suc-Their labors reached a successful conclusion in December with the publication of an attractive 72-page book. This genealogical history came as a pleasant Christmas present to several hundred subscribers.

Dedicated to "Those Intrepid United Empire Loyalist Pioneers" who came to Upper Canada to establish new homes.

ada to establish new the book was published by a committee headed by Cecil B. Ketcheson of Halloway. Others Ketcheson of Halloway. Others active on the committee included Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Franklin of Albert College, Belleville, James R. B. Ketcheson of Kingston, Samuel Morton Ketcheson of Toronto and E. Claude Young of Wellington.

All of these people deserve the thanks of the descendants of William Ketcheson as well as of all historically-minded per-of all historically-minded persons. The publication of this book is a milestone in the genealogical records of Ontario.

As research editor, Claude
Young is particularly to be congratulated. The task of compiling this book was certainly a formidable one. Some idea of the magnitude of the work can be seen in its length (72 pages), the thousands of names included, and the fact that one of William Ketcheson's children, (William), had, in turn, 15 children, 81 grandchildren and 228 great grandchildren.

The book is handsomely printed and has pictures of William Ketcheson and several of his children.

Some of the Loyalist families that have intermarried with the Ketchesons include the Bleeckwill be found in promerican

Ketchesons include the Bleecker, Bogart, Canniff, Denyes, Farley, Foster, Fralick, Gilbert,
Herkinger Meyers, Ostrom, F. W.
Thrasher, Wanderwith
Wermilyea families.

Congratulations on congratulates rmer Y's Man, honorary life ace 1926. Y's Watson (left) looks on with approval. The announce ment was made at the annual banque which the Y's Men put on for the city

Council Members | Airborne Boat Mayor, Guests Of Y's Men's Club

Highlight of

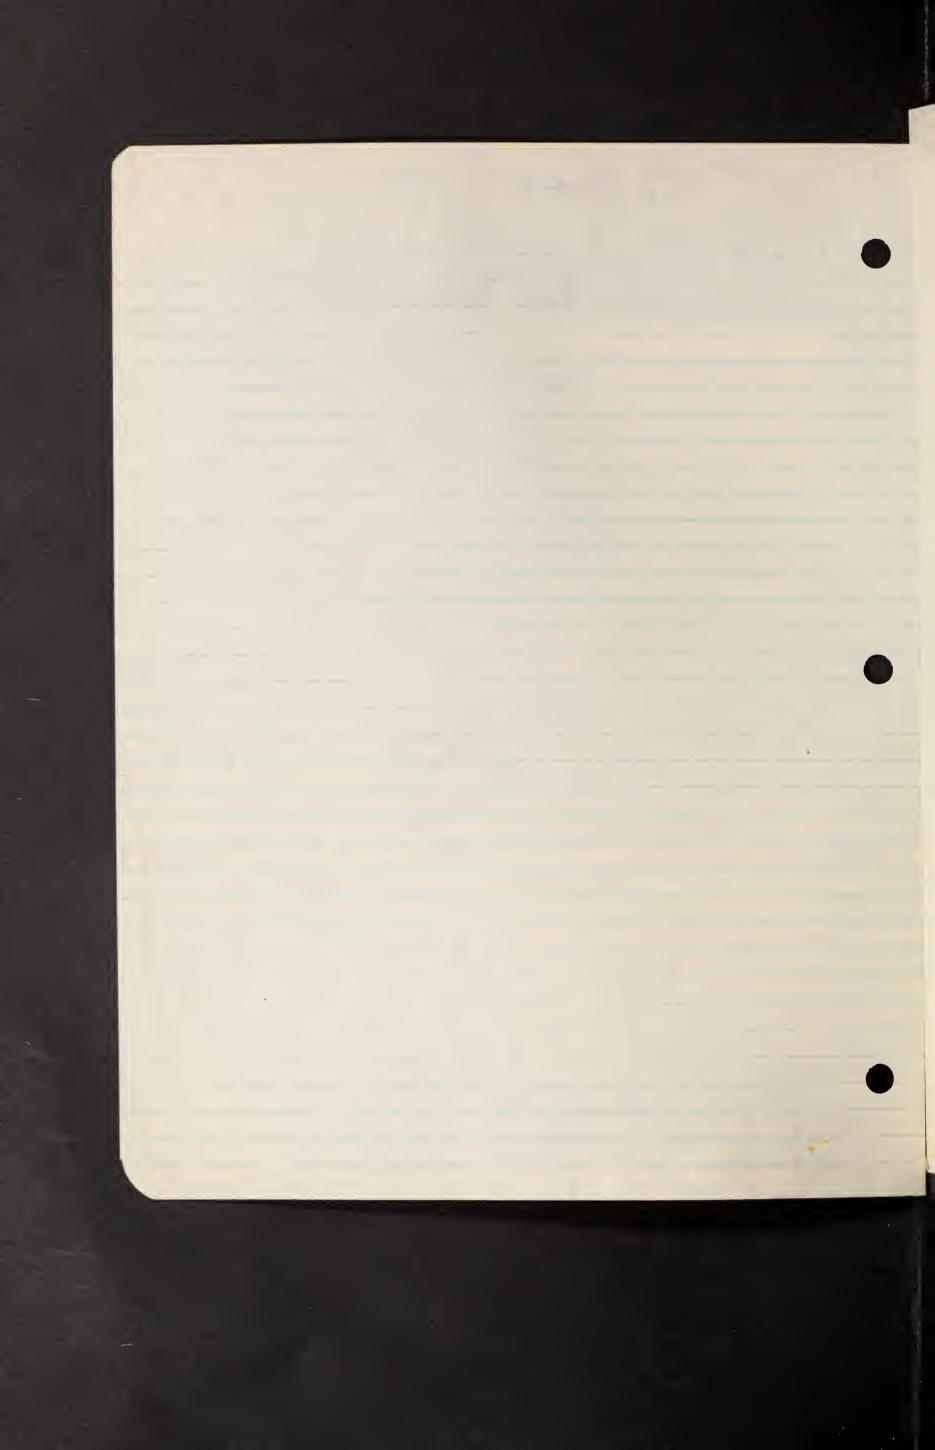

Flies Half Block Then Hits Auto

HORAGE, Alaska (AP)

Kitcheson Genealogy

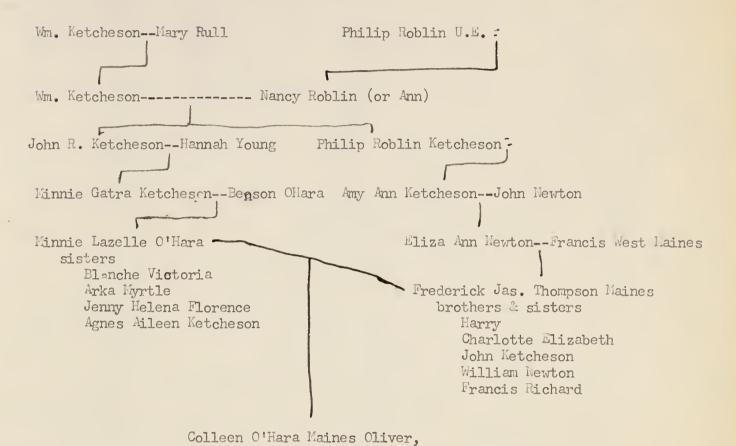

Col. William Kelsheron Branch R 26

Theodore Fosler 1899 + Opal bush 1899-1945

Eligibility for Membership, Bay of Quinte Branch U. E. L. Association. Ketcheson

24 Aug., 1956

60 Fairfield Ave., Kitchener, Ont.

